

1 Introduction

The Software Defined Radio Forum, Inc. doing business as the Wireless Innovation Forum is an international group of equipment vendors, subsystem vendors, software developers, technology developers, communication service providers, research and engineering organizations, academic institutions, government users, regulators and other interested parties who share the common business interests of advancing technologies supporting the innovative utilization of spectrum and the development of wireless communications systems, including essential or critical communications systems¹.

Within the Wireless Innovation Forum, the Spectrum Sharing Committee serves as a common industry and government standards body to support the development and advancement of spectrum sharing technologies based on the three-tier architecture proposed for the Citizens Broadband Radio Service (FCC Part 96) rulemaking activities². This Committee is intended to facilitate the interpretation and implementation of FCC rulemaking to a level that allows industry and government parties to collaborate on implementation of a common, efficient, well-functioning ecosystem around this technology³.
